UPDATE ON THE 2025 SUPPLEMENTARY REGISTRATION OF VOTERS

The Commission is pleased to inform electoral stakeholders and the public that the Supplementary Registration of Voters (SRV) process, which began on 4 August 2025 in preparation for the 2025 Regional Councils and Local Authorities elections, is progressing smoothly.

During the first week of registration for the SRV, the Commission has registered a total of 19,359 eligible voters in all 121 Constituencies and 59 Local Authorities as tabulated in *Table 1 and Table 2 as attachments. In addition, 12,270 voters moved from one constituency to another, and 4,181 registered voters applied for duplicate voter registration cards.

While appreciating and commending all eligible voters who made efforts to register during the first week of SRV, the Commission noted with great concern the low turnout recorded.

The Commission therefore encourages and urges all eligible voters, especially young voters who have turned 18 since the conclusion of the 2024 General Registration of Voters (GRV) and those whose voter cards are written Not Applicable (NA) but have been residing in the same local authority areas since the 2 August 2024, to take this opportunity to register. We also urge eligible voters who have relocated to a different constituency or missed the chance to register during the 2024 GRV to register now.

To be eligible for registration, a voter must be a Namibian citizen, at least 18 years old, and able to identify themselves. Additionally, eligible voters must apply for registration in the constituency and local authority where they reside. Specifically, a voter is required to demonstrate that they have resided in a local authority area for a consecutive period of 12 consecutive months. Such proof can be provided by either presenting a Water & Electricity Bill, Telephone Account or a declaration under Oath with the registration officials.

The SRV exercise is ongoing across the country, from Mondays to Saturdays between 08h00 - 19h00 until 19 August 2025.

We look forward to a successful 2025 supplementary registration of voters. “Get involved, Register to Vote”.
